VIVO PUNCH

by Michael Cheung, Hong Kong

This series of human-like figures embodies the qualities of VivoCity. Fun, inquisitive and extremely lovable, they are synonymous with optimistic happiness and unforgettable experiences, always ready to explore, discover and see the bright side of life.

APHRODITE'S ROSES

by Hiroshi Yoshimizu, Japan

Four red roses along the Promenade evoke an air of romance and passion for visitors enjoying the stunning sea view. In Greek mythology, it is said that when the goddess of love and beauty, Aphrodite, arose from the sea, the gods created the rose to celebrate her birth. This artwork was created to celebrate the birth of VivoCity.

FLOWER TREE

by Choi Jeong-Hwa, Korea

Blooming among real trees along the Promenade, the 6-metre tall Flower Tree symbolises affluence, courage and youth, transcending season, time and space.

SNOWMAN

by Inges Idée, Germany

A visual phenomenon rising to a height of 13 metres, this unlikely visitor to the tropics sits on the Promenade, towering over the second-storey terrace to peer over the third-storey Sky Park.

SNOWFLAKES

by Inges Idée, Germany

Perched on VivoCity's curved roof, the giant snowflakes measuring more than 1-metre across, complement the Snowman. Together, they symbolise the triumph over nature as they stand frozen in tropical Singapore.

VIEW INTO THE FUTURE

by Chris Daze Ellis, USA

This artwork depicts the co-existence of modernism with the tranquillity and beauty of Singapore. Surrounded by sea, clouds and modern high-rise buildings, the artwork conveys optimism through a woman's eye as she gazes into the future.

GOGO

by Marc Ruygrok, The Netherlands

GoGo awaits its launch near the entrance of VivoCity. Imagine visitors boarding the rocket and flying home with their purchases. This playful, timeless rocket invites visitors to explore the ever-changing lifestyle environment that is synonymous with VivoCity.
